TURN

CH 7

And then Vauss was like--

Babe, if you don't shut up about this chick...

But she helped me come to terms with my weight.

But you keep talking about her like--like she's better than me!

...Are you jealous over my idol? It's not like I'd date her over you.

...I mean--I WOULDN'T.

You haven't stopped talking about her since you got home.

I know but like, I wouldn't have had the confidence to buy this suit if it weren't for her!

This is important to me!

Wow, it's so much heavier than Zeich.

I will never understand that weird fetish. If my parents saw that I was wasting money on a fetish suit instead of college...
It's not a bad thing, Sari. And what I do with my money really shouldn't bother you.
When we're going to live together, it's got to!
Okay well, that's not happening right now.
Shit, it's really tight. I thought these were supposed to be easy to slide on.
You sure it can even fit you?
It-it'll fit!
...It's got to.
Babe, you're going to rip it!
HRNNNNNNN
HAH!

Tess, if you'd taken off your clothes, it probably would've slipped on easier.

I'm shaking. I've been longing to wear one of these ever since I first learned about Mr. Honto's suits.

They only recently released this suit, which was made for heavier set individuals.

It may be impossible for thinner people to wear depending on how much latex a suit can actually store on its body.

You see, when it shrinks to your form, it has to store the extra latex somewhere. And apparently sharks don't have much room to store extra latex, unlike Ella's wolf.

That seems like backward logic but I guess it's like with stomachs. Fat people have less room to stretch those stomachs, and if a suit's already loaded with latex, it'd be harder to store more than it naturally can in such a short time during adjusting to the wearer's size.

Shit, it knicked my cheeks. Just like Ella.

Hehehe...

It... does fit.

Babe?

All this time, I'd been telling myself that I wasn't right for latex because of my size.
It's only ever looked good on thin people. At least, I thought.
This doesn't look that bad!
Huh, I'm not experiencing any of the mental effects that Ella was complaining about.
Maybe I'm just that mentally strong, hahhhh.
Pshh, you wish.
SWILT ~
Okay, you're right, that was mean.

Hey Sari, look, no tits!
I like your tits, babe...
I'm getting rid of them, get used to it and my new shark boy.
Don't you dare bring that thing when you come over in a few weeks.
No.
Why would you even risk that shit, babe? You told me how dangerous that shit can be.
But he's gotta eat!
I don't care. I've got little to look forward to in life so I'm going to enjoy something like this even if it ends up hurting me.
So I'm not worth looking forward to?
CREEK
LIFT
I didn't say that.
I barely get to see you in person. Talking to you is great, but that's not going to just magically cure my depression.
Holy shit, I feel so strong. Imagine me carrying you bridal style, Sari.
Not in THAT thing, no thanks.

With big, meaty claws that could DO things...
No.
FILL THINGS.
[It is not recommended to fill things with your arm.]
Seriously babe, I'm not interested in fucking an animal. Costume or not, that shit is weird.
My limit is your tight body binder crap.
One, it's a chest binder, and two--
It's not a fuckin' real animal! It's a furry thing--
I said no.
Besides, it's latex. You know I can't touch it.
Okay. Whatever.
I'm gonna go surprise Ella with this.
Just don't do anything weird.
I am all about weird.

I feel so much stronger. The suits supposedly don't help you with mobility...
And maybe this is just all in my head, but I really do feel faster, more energetic.
Is it Halloween already?
What the hyell?
Mommy, look, it's a cat!
And I don't give a care in the world for how people look at me!
AHEM
Even though most people don't think this is normal. Who gives a shit what they think? This is about me.
Knock knock

The furries freakin' found me!
SLAM
No, Ella, it's me! Tessa!
You could've warned me!
You know I get anxious around... your people.

I thought you said you'd never wear latex?
I finally got the chance to. With some encouragement.
Oh... Serenity at the con, right?
Yup.
Why a shark?
It's big and I like sharks. And it fits me.
Sooo... what now?
We could go out?
Yyeahh no. I have to finish work that I missed.
I wanted to mess with people. It's the weekend!
What's wrong?
A tiger shark, of all things.
What about them?

That th ng is ving, and bringing up what Mud said t could act like one at any t me!

Tiger sharks are one of the most dangerous sharks out there!

Are you even wearing one of those protective suits underneath?

You wear Zeich w thout a fuckin undersu t

Why should ?

Can you even TALK to t?

Can it tel you what t doesn't like, and warn you before it eats you alive?

I feel a b t of hypocrisy here

Tessa, you know I care about you. Sari talks a the time about how you don't take more measures to take care of yourself. Abusing yourself

And you know it makes both of us upset when you put your fe in danger like piss ng off the wrong people, provoking them Hurting yourself

You don't have to tell me what I already know

Y'know what? You do what you want with it But don t br ng it around me or Zeich don t want it hurting either of us

God I hate feel ng angry

The fuck, Ella? You're mak ng assumptions before he's even done anything!

You assumed a l furries were bad and look at me. Am a bad person?

No, I guess not

And you assumed the con wou d suck, but you had a good t me

yeah

You're basing all of your fears on one dude's word. You gonna trust him over me?

Even though you saw how Zeich reacted you still wear him

Why won't you give my suit the benefit of the doubt?

Zeich could kill you

Yeah, but it doesn't matter if I die. All I do is draw all day! If I died, someone would probably just copy my style and take my place, and it'd be like nothing changed

I don't contribute anything to the real world. You do

You have good relationships, and you help in a real world job that people actually NEED you for. Your military mechanical crap is invaluable and helps the world but my stuff. People don't need me

Oh really? I die? Finally won't have to live in this shithole of a world anymore.

don't die? I get to have fun in a latex suit for the first time. Win win

And I don't want to see you get hurt either but you're still wearing Zeich

Let me worry about my own personal safety when I'm the one putting myself at risk

Fine, you do you

How's Sar handling it?

Oh she doesn't like it at a Thinks it's gonna give me a man body or something

But you know we've had fights and didn't want to make her more agitated than she already was, or she'd start blaming herself for what's wrong with this relationship and I really wanted to just enjoy myself for once

Dude, that doesn't sound good Maybe you guys need a break

No, it's fine Sar would hate that probably don't want her to think something really IS wrong

If she hates these things so much, maybe you could get her to like latex by starting small?

Introducing her to things like gloves, underwear-- she likes wearing those yoga pants a lot right? Maybe get her into latex pants

There's another thing She's allergic to latex

Well that's definitely a problem

Um she could always wear synthetic latex. She works as a surgeon, right? She has to wear fake rubber gloves for that, probably So if you could convince her to wear something like PVC?

And it's a great stepping stone because you don't have to polish it or really maintain it as much as you do with real latex

It's way easier to put on and it maintains its shine!

Oh my god, Ella stop, that would be so hot

Kicking Death's ass in tight, shiny nurse clothes

She's a doctor, not a nurse

Don't ruin my fantasies!

As long as it doesn't touch bare flesh

And and! If she wears it all over her body you could interact with her in the real latex suit

That'd be great, I bet could get her to at least try it

HOURS LATER

People wear masks a the t me both figuratively and terally To keep from letting others n Is there something so shameful n wearing a full body mask such as a living suit?

One that will have people staring so much more, but unable to read the true you? The being inside

They can make assumptions--oh, he or she is a pervert· They must be a lover of BDSM but only you and the suit know the truth

Sar likes my photography So maybe this will warm her to the idea

She may not like the idea of my body becoming more like a man, but I'm going to do it anyway.

She might not like it, but I will teach her that it's okay. There's more to anthro beings than just... just sex. There is beauty in every single one of them.

There are some things that even the ones who love you won't support. You've got to do it anyway if it means YOU will be happier.

Ella was right to be worried. The suit DID hurt me.
He doesn't talk. I'm disappointed by that, but I won't give up on the suit. Everything has their downsides.
It really fuckin' hurts. But you can't just abandon a dog because they bite you. You can't give up on them.
You can't give up on a person who hurts you. When you play a game, you don't just give up when you reach a part you can't beat at the moment.
You practice, or seek help on how to get past it. Giving up means you won't see the ending.
I'm committed to this. No one has to know that it hurts me.

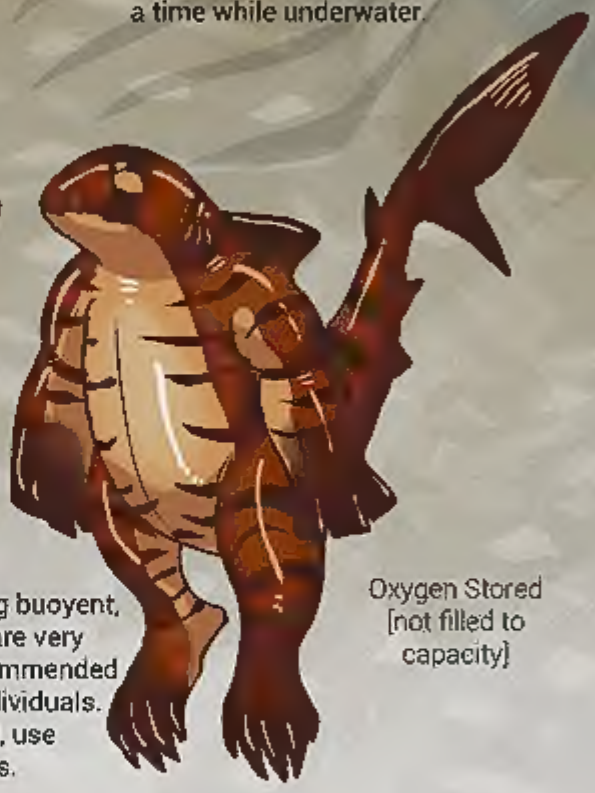
Diving with an Aquatic Suit

Shark gills cannot properly sustain a human with oxygen while breathing underwater.

Instead, a shark suit can store air while the wearer is inside, using the latex deposits [mainly inside the tail] to stretch its skin around the wearer like an inflatable, filling the inside with air that one can use for a time while underwater.

No Oxygen Stored



Oxygen Stored [not filled to capacity]

To prevent being buoyent, these suits are very heavy, not recommended for weaker individuals. If required, use weights.

As you use oxygen, the converted carbon dioxide is expelled through the gills. The suit begins to shrink back to normal size as the amount of oxygen left depletes. You should breach once you feel the suit becoming snug on you.

The suit takes in another big gulp of air, and you're back into the water!
